The Gatekeeper

By Joy Peterson

Norma E. Peterson. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. The Gatekeeper is an inspirational story about the power of love, set in a world of fantasy and adventure. Patience was an ordinary African American teenager, but she must embrace physical transformation into the thing she fears most in order to save a world that she despises even more than the one she ran away from. Suddenly finding herself lost in the mystical world of Mbaba, Patience must put into practice everything that she learned over the years, in order to save herself, her family, and the world itself from a terrifying threat. The moral of the story is a powerful one: love can conquer all, and even unite a broken family against all the odds. It features a blend of spirituality, fantasy, adventure, and love that should appeal to people who prescribe to the teachings of Deepak Chopra, Eckhart Tolle, and Dr. Dwayne Dyer, as well as Christians the world over. Ten years ago I had a remarkable dream I dreamt of a remarkable teenage girl named Patience Robinson. I had no idea that a dream of a girls journey on a plantation she...
